

JUSTIN SWIGER

301 West Cayuga Street | Tampa, FL 33603 | (727) 280-5316 | justin.swiger@me.com

Professional Summary

Self-motivated full-stack web developer with a proven track record of learning and implementing new technologies in a fast-paced, accelerated environment. Passionate and committed to writing clean code, designing and delivering practical solutions, and leveraging strengths through collaboration with diverse teams and individuals.

Technical Skills

React.js | JavaScript | C# | PostgreSQL | .NET Core | HTML5 | CSS | Yarn | npm | Slack | Git | GitHub | Postman | Axios | React Router | Heroku | Docker | RESTful API Creation/Deployment

Professional Experience

Suncoast Developers Guild

Oct 2019 - Jan 2020

Full-Stack Web Development Student

- Developed over 30 individual applications using several technologies including but not limited to HTML5, CSS, JavaScript, React.js, C#, and PostgreSQL
- Created intuitively designed interfaces that use modern UX/UI design philosophies to engage users, incorporate accessibility, and provide a responsive layout
- Exposed to Agile software development by utilizing planning and early delivery of projects to ensure rapid and flexible responses to change

Web Development Projects

- Created an employee database application with React.js, .NET Core, and PostgreSQL
 - Built API with C# and database with PostgreSQL
 - Used GET, POST, and DELETE requests to manipulate data in API
 - Deployed using Netlify: <https://js-employee-db.netlify.com>
 - Code: <https://github.com/uncrownedthrone/hw-employee-database>
- Created a reward tracking application with React.js, .NET Core, and PostgreSQL
 - Built API with C# and database with PostgreSQL
 - Used GET, POST, PUT, and DELETE requests within RESTful API to manipulate data in API
 - Used React Router and Axios for routing API calls
 - In Development - Will be presented January 31st, 2020

Powhatan Information & Default Services

Feb 2016 - June 2019

Loss Draft Coordinator

- Managed simultaneous client relationships by ensuring results were delivered on time according to specific client needs and adhered to all quality specifications
- Identified numerous operational opportunities and implemented new solutions to improve efficiency and quality
- Worked in a fully remote environment that demonstrated an ability to deliver results independently through self-motivation with minimal supervision

T. Rowe Price

Aug 2007 - Nov 2015

Senior Brokerage Correspondence Representative

Dec 2010 - Nov 2015

- Participated in business analyst projects to improve operational efficiency using new technologies

- Implemented efficiency and effectiveness initiatives within the Special Correspondence Group that led to measurable process improvements and cost savings for the business and clients

Brokerage/Mutual Fund Operations Account Representative

Aug 2007 - Dec 2010

- Partnered with senior business and application development analyst departments to improve operational efficiency with a focus on third-party application integration
- Mentored colleagues in efficiency and excellency to ensure improved customer service
- Processed accurate account transactions for client accounts

Education

B.S., Business Management

University of Tampa | Tampa, FL
Graduated Aug 2007

Full-Stack Web Development Graduate

Suncoast Developers Guild | St. Petersburg, FL
Graduated January 2020